

Witness the excitement of the final stage of the Tour de France in style at the elegant Automobile Club de France on the Place de la Concorde in Paris. Start the day with live race coverage on flat screen televisions while you enjoy lavish hors d'oeuvres and cocktails. Once the peloton gets to Paris, take to the grand balconies overlooking the Place de la Concorde and see the race pass by twice on each of the eight laps. As the dramatic finish approaches, you may take your place street-level along the race course and even mingle with the teams post-race as you make your way to the team buses adjacent to our gala. *
